

CHAPEL ARTS
PROGRAMME OF ACTIVITIES
Horderns Shop at 73 Market Street, Chapel-en-le-Frith

Attending every Day

Chapel Arts Collage Activity - Call in at our pop-up centre any time between 18th Oct - 2nd Nov and take part in our "Memorable Chapel" community input. We can identify with your help what is memorable about Chapel or something that you love about the area. Bring in any old postcards, letters, photos, etc and help produce a collage of wonderful memories of life in Chapel. If you only have memories we will help you write them down to share with other visitors.

Chapel Players – Costumes - It's Behind You!

Like dressing up? Love Theatre? Here's your opportunity. Come to the Chapel Arts Pop-up shop any day in their open fortnight and Chapel Players will have Pantomime costumes for you to try. We will also have more details about the Players and how you can join this lively group

Sat 18 Oct 9am Opening Ceremony

Sat 18 Oct Alan Heywood Photography 9-12am

Details to be confirmed

Sat 18 Oct Karen Heywood Watercolour Painting -12am

Demonstration and discussion

Sat 18 Oct Kite-making with Mike Goddard 1-3pm

Details to be confirmed

Sun 19 Oct – Open Creative Session 10-12

Bring along your own art/craft for open discussion as a group

Sun 19 Oct – Chapel Male Voice Choir – 6-9pm

Programme to be confirmed

Mon 20 Oct 1-4pm Ink Drawing – Paul Gent

Details to be confirmed

Mon 20 Oct Paul Morris, 'Alan Turing, Codebreaker and Dreamer' 7.30-9.00pm

Drop in session – talk and reading – arrive at 7.30pm

Tues 21 Oct Jewellery Making with Yuka between 10-12.

A beginner's necklace making class using the basic wire wrapping skills. No experience needed but we'll use pliers and wire cutter so it's for over 18 years old. Cost is £5 to cover materials inclusive and pliers can be hired. Names and details to be kept for further workshops. Please book in advance by sending an email to yukajourdain@gmail.com.

Tues 21 Oct Yarnbirds, crochet event 1-3 p.m.

Join Claire (Yarnbirds in Whaley Bridge) to start to crochet your own heart banner. Basic crochet skills needed. Hooks can be borrowed on the day. Free. All materials provided. Places limited to 8, please sign up at Reading Matters bookshop.

Weds 22 Oct 10-12 Drawing – Yvonne Noworyta

Looking at mix media drawing in an informal style, exploring the fruits of the season and how we can produce exciting and expressive artworks. Yvonne will provide some materials and encourage people to join her in a creative adventure. No need to book- just come along.

Weds 22 Oct Textiles Lesley Bull 1.30-4.00pm

Explore ribbon work/textiles

Weds 22 Oct Animals in Watercolour 6-9pm Liz Challinor

Bring along an A4 picture of your pet or have a go at one of our images. Materials provided no charge. 10 seats available, to book a place email lizchallinor@gmail.com.

Thurs 23 Oct - Printmaking with Val Vernon – all ages time 9-12

A demonstration of relief printing – I will be doing my own work which is based on Communication. The prints I make send messages in my own hieroglyphs; some being mystical and some being pattern. Some work will be for sale. No charge

Thurs 23 Oct Paul Morris 'Beyond the Morning Sun' 2.30-3.30pm open drop in

1.30-2.30pm booked by Chapel High School

Modern war poetry

Thurs 23 Oct Watercolour Flowers 6-9pm Liz Challinor

Our gardens are always a wonderful source of inspiration, why not bring along a photograph (A4 or smaller) of your own garden or a flower and turn it into a special painting? Materials provided no charge. 10 seats available, to book a place email lizchallinor@gmail.com.

Fri 24 Oct – Well Dressing Angela Buttrill 9-12 noon

A chance to help produce a mini-well dressing using all the equipment of a full sized equivalent. This will enable those involved to use clay, understand how to create the design and finally how to apply the decoration.

Fri 24 Oct Adults Reading Group, 7-9pm

Reading Group led by A. Barton. 'Stoner' by John Williams. 12 places, sign up by contacting Reading Matters book shop. Read as much as you can before the group meets. 20% off books from Reading Matters

Sat 25 Oct 1-4pm Introduction to wet felting with felt maker Linda Moss

Make a piece of flat felt for a bag or picture, by the traditional technique of wet felting. Please bring an old towel to wrap your finished piece, and £3 to cover costs of materials, all provided. Numbers limited to 6: suitable for accompanied children over 5 or for adults. please e-mail Linda: linda@linda.moss.name; www.lindamoss.co.uk

Sat 25 Oct Open Poetry/Prose night. 7-9pm

Come and perform your own poetry/prose, or the writing of others you admire. Informal evening, please bring your own refreshments. Dierdre Costello, MC.

E-mail jean_coops16@hotmail.co.uk (note: underscore between jean and coops) to join the list, but turn up anytime.

Sun 26 Oct Open Creative Session

Bring along your own art/craft for open discussion as a group

Sun 26 Oct 1-4 Live up your landscapes with Linda Moss

Try out some new watercolour and mixed media techniques to give a contemporary edge to your paintings., with professional artist Linda Moss. Workshop for up to 6 people. Free, but bring our own painting materials and paper. Linda will provide more to try out. This workshop is for adult amateur artists who already paint. Please book by e-mail to Linda: linda@linda.moss.name; www.lindamoss.co.uk

Mon 27 Oct Patchwork and More -sewing event. 10-12 a.m.

Join Julia from Patchwork and More in Chapel, to sew a heart. Completed heart can be displayed alone or more made to make a banner. Basic sewing skills needed. Free. All materials provided. Places limited to 8, please sign up at Reading Matters bookshop.

Mon 27 Oct Young adults (13+) Reading Group 1-3pm.

Reading group led by A. Beresford. 'Fearless' by Emma Pass. 12 places, sign up by contacting Reading Matters book shop and collecting your free book. Read as much as you can before the group meets,

Tues 28 Oct Val Vernon - Building Chapel – en –Le –Frith in Clay – All ages - 9-12 noon

This series of work will be celebrating the varied architecture in Chapel. I will be using air drying clay and surface decoration techniques to make pieces based on drawings and photographs of Chapel. They will be decorated with wax resist. There will be enough materials for about 10 people to have a go and join in if they wish. Cost £30 – Clay – inks, wax crayons, paper, printing for photographs.

Tues 28 Oct Creative writing, children under 12 - 2-3.30pm

Local Author Margaret Holbrook will lead a motivational creative writing session. All abilities welcome. Sign up at Reading Matters bookshop, 12 places,

Wed 29 Oct Karen Heywood Sketchbook binding 1-4pm

Making a sketch book/journal. How to make your own hand sewn sketch book/journal, by using a simple binding technique. The materials I will be using are: Piece of card, Glue, Cartridge paper, Embroidery thread, Candle, Button.

Wed 29 Oct Creative Writing, Adults evening 7-9pm.

Local Author Margaret Holbrook will lead a creative writing session for adults, come and have a go! Sign up at Reading Matters bookshop, 15 places,

Weds 29 Oct – leave blank as between 5-7pm Artists dropping off their work

Thursday 30 October, Arts & Crafts - Lantern Making – Claire Parker 10-12 noon

An opportunity to create and make together. Lantern making: Halloween fun, make your own traditional paper lantern using willow and tissue. Claire Parker a local community artist will show you how to achieve beautiful shapes and add your own spooky design ready to pop your candle in and be ready for Halloween night. Donations towards the costs of our events will be warmly received.

Thurs 30 Oct –Creative Writing, 2-4pm Young adults 13+.

Emma Pass, local author, will lead a 2 hour session, all abilities welcome. Please sign up for the course at Reading Matters bookshop, places limited to 12.

Thurs 30 Oct –leave blank as between 6-9pm Art Show Preparation

Friday 31 October, Badgemaking with Val Vernon– All ages – 9-12 noon

Using collage, montage, and drawing to make professional - looking badges.
Nominal charge of 50p

Friday 31 October – Children's Music - 2 events at 10am and 11am prompt

Bring your children along to experience and enjoy live music. Members of the Halle Orchestra and BBC Philharmonic orchestra are coming together to put on 2 children's concerts at 10 am and 11am. A rare opportunity to get right up close to live music and see and hear how we make music together. Suitable for all ages.

Friday 31 October – Drop into Reading Matters Bookshop from 2.30pm 2.30-3.30pm.

Well known Local Author Berlie Doherty will be reading from her new book, 'Company of Ghosts'. No need to sign up, it's a pop-in. Bertie is happy to chat, sign books and answer questions. Books available in Reading Matters Bookshop.

Fri 31 Oct 6-9pm ART SHOW PRIVATE VIEWING

Sat 1st Nov Family Felt – Claire Parker 9-12 noon

Family Art & Crafts: an opportunity to create and make together. Felt fun: join in with our taster felt making workshop run by local community artist Claire Parker. Felt items to buy and starter kits will be available, handmade in the high peak, ideal gifts and keepsakes. Donations towards the costs of our events will be warmly received.

Sat 1st Nov Chapel Ladies Choir – Dorian Kelly 9-12 noon

Chapel-en-le-Frith Ladies Choir is a non-auditioning choir and currently has around 35 members. We have recently celebrated our 40th Anniversary year with several concerts and a CD recording. The choir will be at the pop-up arts shop in Chapel between 9-12 performing music in preparation for our annual Christmas concert, which this year takes place on Saturday 13th December, with guests the High Peak Orchestra. Come down for a listen, we might even let you join in!

www.chapel-en-le-frithladieschoir.co.uk

Sat 1st Nov Dierdra Costello Storyteller 2-4pm,

All ages welcome. Call in.

Sat 1 Nov Open Poetry/Prose night 6-9pm.

Come and perform your own poetry/prose, or the writing of others you admire. Informal evening, please bring your own refreshments. Lindsay Noden MC. E-mail jean_coops16@hotmail.co.uk (note underscore between jean and coops) to join the list, but turn up anytime,

Sun 2 Nov 6-9pm

Come and join us for an evening of classical music featuring husband and wife duo Sarah Ewins (Associate Leader Halle Orchestra) and Timothy Pooley (Principal Viola Halle Orchestra) playing works by Mozart, Martinu and Handel/Halvorsen. Tickets available from within shop from 18th October £5 include free glass of fizz